

ADELAIDE FESTIVAL

28 FEB - 15 MAR 2020

BREAKFAST WITH PAPERS

Hosted by Tom Wright

TODAY'S PANEL – Thursday 12 March

Rodrigo Praino

Rodrigo Praino is Associate Professor of Politics and Public Policy. He holds a PhD in Political Science, and has been the recipient of several prestigious fellowships, scholarships and awards. He is the only political scientist to have ever received a Young Tall Poppy of Science Award. Rodrigo's research focuses on decision-making and political behaviour, particularly how voters often make their decisions in a context of low-information.

Sam Klintworth

Sam is a passionate human rights advocate who has worked in the community sector for more than 30 years, she is committed to empowering vulnerable and disadvantaged individuals and communities. Sam has worked in a variety of roles from frontline through to leadership, she has been privileged to work in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, Asylum seeker and refugee communities, Youth Justice, Child Protection, Domestic and Family Violence, Crisis and Homelessness services, Disaster Management and Community Capacity Building.

Sean Fewster

Sean Fewster is The Advertiser's chief court reporter, and has covered most of Adelaide's major criminal trials for the past 18 years. He is the author of the bestselling true crime book "City of Evil", which was adapted into a top-rating TV miniseries by Channel 9 and Foxtel in 2018. Sean also provides analysis of the criminal justice system every week on FiveAA.

#AdlFest #AdlWW

PRESENTING PARTNER
The Advertiser